

wind
down like clockwork

Silent at Heart is an innovative project using Art as a means of raising awareness of Sudden Cardiac Death in the Young.

A showcase exhibition of the Silent at Heart art and biomedicine Project, including South East London Cardiac Network recent commission of works by:

Zoe Childerley Illustration

Máire Quinn Painting

Kathy Schicker Textiles

Mauricio Vincenzi Film installation

Tim Wainwright Photography

Also showing the artistic response of 30 London based A-level Art, Design and Media students through their personal journeys of learning about Sudden Cardiac Death in the Young and being tested for these silent conditions.

Curated by Mauricio Vincenzi.

Exhibition opens 4th - 15th September 2007
Monday to Saturday 10.00am - 6.00pm

Private View Monday 3rd September 2007
5.00pm - 9.00pm

The Air Gallery
32 Dover Street
London W1S 4NE

For further information, please visit: www.silentatheart.org

